Dialogue “Prevention and response to technology-facilitated gender-based violence”

The FPTU’s culture encourages equality, with anti-discrimination policies in admission and recruitment. Our students, staff and faculty are fairly treated no matter where they come from underrepresented (and potentially underrepresented) groups such as ethnic minorities, low-income students, non-traditional students, women, LGBT students, and disabled students, and newly settled refugee students.

The Ministry of Labour, War Invalids and Social Affairs of Vietnam and the United Nations Population Fund in Vietnam coordinated with FPTU Hanoi to organize the Dialogue “Prevention and response to technology-facilitated gender-based violence”.

“Parents and their children on a journey” Project - a new approach to gender issues for FPTU students

LGBT students can receive understanding from their parents, being open, proud and asserting themselves. A group of FPTU students to carry out a project on the LGBT community specifically to support to the goal of Gender Equality in the 17 SDGs of the United Nations.
